Examiner-Initiated Interview Summary	Application No. 10/526,541		Applicant(s) THOLE ET AL.
	Examiner Magali P. Slawski		Art Unit 1795

All Participants:

(1) Magali P. Slawski

(2) Mr. Michael E. Whitham

Date of Interview: 5 August 2010

Type of Interview:

☒ Telephonic

☐ Video Conference

☐ Personal (Copy given to: ☐ Applicant ☐ Applicant's representative)

Exhibit Shown or Demonstrated: ☐ Yes ☐ No

If Yes, provide a brief description: _____

Part I.

Rejection(s) discussed:

Claims discussed:

1-3

Prior art documents discussed:

Björhaag et al. (US 4,902,445), henceforth Björhaag.

Part II.

SUBSTANCE OF INTERVIEW DESCRIBING THE GENERAL NATURE OF WHAT WAS DISCUSSED:

Having identified Björhaag as a potential foil for amended claim 3, the examiner called Applicant's attorney to ask about the criticality of the mixing temperatures. Applicant's attorney explained that the elevated mixing temperatures of claim 3 were used because the water vapor added to the mixture made it possible for the water glass not to harden at those temperatures. Applicant's attorney further explained that the water vapor made it possible to add the water glass in fluid form in the blow line by preventing the water glass's drying out therein. Applicant's attorney authorized the amendment of claim 3 to include reference to the blowline because adding the liquid water glass in the blow line is the crux of Applicant's invention and it explains why the other allowable limitations are non-obvious.

Applicant's attorney agreed to cancel claims 1 and 2 because the mixing temperatures in these claims could easily have been room temperature in certain climates and would have been obvious to arrive at from "standard" room temperature (25 C) through routine optimization.

Part III.

☒ It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview directly resulted in the allowance of the application. The examiner will provide a written summary of the substance of the interview in the Notice of Allowability.

☐ It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview did not result in resolution of all issues. A brief summary by the examiner appears in Part II above.
